

INFORMATION

In accordance with French law
No. 94-665 of 4 august 1994,

French is the language of use in the administrations.

Anyone who does not master this language is required to bring an interpreter.

Article 1

As the language of the Republic under the Constitution, the French language is a fundamental element of the personality and heritage of France. It is the language of education, work, trade and public services.

It is the privileged link between the States making up the French-speaking community.